FLOOD OF TOURISTS HERE THIS FALL, IS PREDICTED

Chamber of Commerce Making Every Effort to Further Influx of Homeseekers

Indicative of the flood of tourists and homeseekers who are coming to Glendale this fall and winter is the large number of inquiries for information about this city which are received daily at the Chamber of Commerce and The Glendale Evening News office.

This office today is in receipt of requests for sample copies of the paper from Palo Alto, San Jose and Twin Peaks, California, while the Chamber of Commerce received a letter this morning from London, England.

Mrs. Ruth Rogers of 140 Westcombe Hill, S. E., London, is the writer and she states that she seeks the position of organist in a local church. Mrs. Rogers saw a story in a Los Angeles paper stating that the Congregationalists are to build and will install a pipe organ.

Many Inquiries Received

A score more of inquiries were received by Secretary James M. Rhoades from all parts of the United States. In past years 20 per cent of Glendale's winter population has been tourists.

Taking 20,000 people now here as a basis, there should be 4,000 newcomers from outside of the state seeking residence here between September 1 and March 15.

With a normal increase of 700 a month, it is estimated that this city can boast of 7,500 additional population on March 1, which will put Glendale close to 30,000.

C. of C. Will Grow

The Chamber of Commerce expects to grow proportionately with the town, according to E. F. Sanders, assistant secretary, in chage of membership. E. Dunkinfield Jones, A. M. I. C. E., globe trotter and scientist who has been employed in various parts of the world on great engineering projects, is among the latest to apply for membership. He is making 118 Fairview avenue his home for the rest of his life, but wants to keep interested in affairs through the medium of this live civic body.

Mr. Jones only recently has presented the University of Southern Califonia with a wonderful collection of butterflies which he has found during his extensive travel. At his home he has some most unusual specimens of animal and plant life, according to Mr. Sanders.

H. H. Chapman Sells His Home for $11,000

H. H. Chapman of 1213 North Brand boulevard has sold his beautiful home at that address to Mr. and Mrs. Martin of New Jersey for a consideration of $11,000. Mr. and Mrs. Martin arrived in California just four days ago, and having heard of the wonders of Glendale at one of the Los Angeles hotels, decided to see for themselves. They boarded a Pacific Electric car and after being shown around for two or three hours came to the Chapman home and bought it in thirty minutes.

La Brea Oilfields Fire Casts Smoke Pall Over Glendale

Fire, reported to be in the La Brea oilfields of western Los Angeles, cast a pall over Glendale at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Hundreds of householders and business men were in the streets watching the clouds of smoke roll over the Hollywood foothills.

First information regarding the fire was obtained from the Hollywood wire chief of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company. The United Press in Los Angeles also informed The Glendale Evening News that a fire starting in a sump hole had spread to an adjoining well.

The fire was reported controlled at 2 o'clock, according to reports from Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed M. Lee and Son Kenneth Are Back From Long Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ed M. Lee and son, Kenneth, of 345 North Belmont street, and Mrs. Lee's brother, C. B. Miltenberger, returned yesterday from an automobile trip of more than 4500 miles, having left Glendale June 29. During their trip they toured through seven states, going through California to Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Utah and Nevada.

Among the points of interest visited by Mr. and Mrs. Lee and party were Crater Lake, near Medford, Ore., where there were snowdrifts as high as their automobile; Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane. An eight-day stop was made at Yellowstone Park, from which place they went to Cody Dam, Wyo.

Included in the experiences of the trip was that of being stuck in the desert after a cloudburst. This occurred between Salt Lake and Gold Hill, Utah, on what was known as the Goodyear cut-off. It took them six hours to get out. This was accomplished by the aid of a miners' wagon which happened to come along and pulled them out.

Mr. Lee states that for the 4500 miles covered he purchased just 300 gallons of gasoline on the trip.

Research Hospital to Consider Program of Increasing Capacity

Members of the board of directors of the Glendale Research Hospital met last Friday night and considered a program of expansion which appears immediately necessary, The Glendale News learns today.

Two things which are said to be vitally necessary to the greatest success of this new institution is an additional hospital room which will double the present capacity and a bungalow court back of the nurses' home to accommodate the increasing personnel.

Of the total property destroyed by the fire the machine was all that was covered by insurance.

KOREAN CONDITIONS ARE RELATED BY SPEAKER HERE

Returned Religious Worker's Views Given Congregation, Presbyterian Church

The people of the Presbyterian church had an extraordinary privilege Sunday morning in hearing Rev. George B. McCune, of Korea. His address was from start to finish of most compelling interest and was received with the attention it deserved.

He with his wife started to Korea in July, 1905, and had a journey of shipwrecks and loss of all they had, "but they had the Lord," who has been with them all these years, saving their lives through all. Those in Korea have been going through things not revealed on the outside, a word being sure to be misinterpreted. He has come back here to tell how the fight has been going on; it has been awfully hard and dark sometimes,—as when he was in a mortal struggle with a man who had a revolver to kill; but nothing can happen to any one that the Lord will not permit, he said.

"Korea has a wonderful history of 4000 years; but they have lived too long always thinking and talking of what their ancestors did. In late years waking up they are prone to think of what they are going to do. But in this new forward look they put trust for uplift in a false friend, to their sorrow. Christ only is the real up-lifter," said the speaker.

"There is a great corporation in America that has the motto, 'Get the light into all the world,' and whose agents have been in every corner of the earth,—the Standard Oil company. I met one of these agents in an obscure corner of Korea and learned that it was his fourth trip there. We have another company which has that same motto.

Avoided at Night

"Syenchun was the darkest, wickedest spot in Korea. It had to be avoided night times. Now it has 3500 Christians and is a clean, peaceful town. Like transformations are going on all over. It is only a little over thirty years since the first Christian was baptized. We Presbyterians have missions in twenty-seven countries of the world. Of the con-

Adventist Choral Club Guests at Manhattan

The members of the Seventh-day Adventist Choral club and their friends spent a very delightful day Sunday at the new bungalow of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Brandstater at Manhattan Beach. The cottage has a wonderful view of the ocean and always will have because of the elevation of the site. It is a front lot, just north of the Redondo-Venice Pacific Electric line.

After partaking of a bountiful picnic lunch, most of the party went in swimming. The water was ideal and it was with regrets that they returned to the bungalow to prepare for their departure. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones and daughters Elva and Adel; Mr. and Mrs. E. Dunbar; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swartzfager; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Von Steinburg and little daughter, Alice; W. V. Stricklin; Mr. and Mrs. Hartman and daughters, Ruby and Marion; Mrs. B. O. Carr, Misses Moresy Edith Travis, Olive Travis, and Hazel Carr, all of Glendale; E. A. Both of the families have been friends for many years, having been former neighbors in the east.

Mr. Kimball states that the newlyweds may locate in Glendale, although no definite plans have yet been made. The younger Mr. Kimball is a professor of chemistry in the University of North Dakota, which is situated in Fargo.

Boy Scouts Depart for Summer Camp, Lytle Creek Canyon

This morning promptly at 7:00 a. m. twenty-three Scouts left Glendale for an eight-day camping trip to Lytle Creek canyon, about sixty-five miles from Glendale. The boys were taken in one of the big trucks of the Glendale Transfer company and will go direct to the camp site. By Monday evening it is expected that camp will be made and the boys comfortable for the night. The names of those who went are as follows: C. G. Farrow, Dallas Kalbaugh, Horace Brown, Hugo Ells, Wayne Maxwell, John Farles, Arthur Barton, Claude Streight, Kenneth Miles, Rosso Graham, Jack Packard, Bertrand Foster, Milo Sherrick, Thomas Wood, Jr., Charles Kaussen, Robert Eastman, John Hammersley, Wallas Haines, Wilbur Booth, Clifford Walcott, Eugene Wernett, Alexander Chase, Charles Mambert.

Judge Gavin W. Craig Buys Attractive Home

Judge Gavin W. Craig of the superior court has purchased the magnificent home place at 460 West Colorado boulevard in Eagle Rock from Mrs. M. Weinsvieg of Yuma, Arizona, through the agency of Mrs. M. L. Tight, 612½ East Broadway. The judge expects to make this one of the show places in southern California. It is already terraced with a rock retaining wall built at the cost of $6000.

This is but one of four deals totalling more than $40,000 which were placed in escrow last week by Mrs. Tight who had just returned from her vacation. "Business is good and getting better every day," she said in her optimistic way today as she started another series of classified advertisements in The Glendale Evening News. Other deals last week which she reports are as follows:

William H. Sprangers of Los Angeles has purchased the Dr. Henry H. Harrower property at 345 North Cedar street; Miss Barbara Zeiher of Hollywood has bought the duplex house owned by Robert S. Person of 241-243 North Louise street; and Major Charles L. Wyman, who is an S. A. T. C. instructor, has bought the G. L. Reed home, all furnished, at 430 Piedmont Park.

ELDER J. E. FULTON GIVES LECTURE ON PEOPLE OF FIJI

Returned Missionary's Talk Filled With Interesting Facts; Shows Relics

Last night Elder J. E. Fulton, vice president of the Seventh-day Adventist general conference for British India and Australia, delivered a very interesting lecture on life in Fiji, in the Glendale Sanitarium parlor.

Having spent ten years there in missionary work he was able to illustrate his remarks with many incidents from his experience among the people.

He speaks and writes the language fluently and at the close of his lecture he sang a popular Christian hymn, assisted by Mrs. Fulton, who sang the alto, while he sang the air.

He showed a war club which one of the oldest chiefs, long since converted to Christ, assured him had been used in slaying men in tribal warfare, whose victims were always eaten. It had many notches at the big end showing how many had been killed with it. A cannibal wooden plate was also shown. He showed several samples of tappa cloth made from the bark of a species of mulberry tree. The bark is peeled off, soaked in water and then pounded out with a wooden mallet on a flat log. It is dried in the sun, dyed and stamped or stained in many patterns peculiar to these islanders. This was once the material used entirely for clothing. Imported cotton cloth is now used.

The Fijian, while formerly a cannible and still a flesh eater when he can get flesh and fish, subsists chiefly on vegetables and fruits, and though it is simple fare, he thrives upon it.

Much faithful work was done by the early Wesleyan missionaries in sowing the seed that today is bear-

Today's World News In Brief

(By United Press to Glendale Evening News)

PHOENIX FLOOD IS OVER; DAMAGE IS ABOUT $150,000

PHOENIX, Ariz., Aug. 22.—The Phoenix flood is over. Waters which inundated the state capitol grounds and flooded the basements and lower floors of the buildings was quickly receding today. A majority of the records stored in the basements of the state buildings were saved. Those which were ruined by being stored in non-waterproof vaults were of slight value. Total damage to state property will be much less than estimated when the flood was at its crest. A preliminary survey today after the waters had receded set the damage at $150,000.

ONE KILLED, TEN MISSING IN GEORGIA HOTEL FIRE

MASON, Ga., Aug. 22.—One person is known to have been killed and ten are missing in the fire which destroyed the Brown House, one of Macon's oldest hotels, early today. It is feared the missing are buried beneath the ruins of the building, according to police and firemen. Eight persons were seriously injured. That the known death toll would grow as firemen, police and others completed searching the ruins was the belief. G. L. Wilder, a guest who escaped from the third floor by climbing from window sill to window sill, declared he left fifteen men trapped on the third floor. Police, however, say that not more than ten persons are missing.

NEW LOW PRICES FOR STOCKS ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Many stocks made new low prices for the year on the New York stock exchange today. The heavy selling was not in big blocks as a general thing. The slump seemed to be caused by an entire absence of buying power. Sears Roebuck, American Sugar, U. S. Rubber, Pierce Oil, Pfd., and Retail Stores were among those to drop to new lows. The industrial list was decidedly reactionary during the first ten minutes' trading. Mexican Petroleum, after opening unchanged at 91¾, dropped to 89½, which is within 1¾ of the low for the year. Asphalt made a new low for the current decline at 41⅝. American Sugar dropped to 60, a new low for the year. Steel common, however, continued to hold up well and at 73⅞ was only off ⅛. Royal Dutch made an early low slightly above 45. Heavy selling continued in Studebaker and it quickly dropped to 65¼, a price which is 28 points below the year's high.

PAYS WITH LIFE FOR FIDELITY TO HUSBAND, IS CLAIM

PORTERVILLE, Cal., Aug. 22.—Mrs. Ermin Bachman paid with her life for fidelity to her husband, authorities believed today. She was shot and killed late yesterday and today posses were searching the hills for Walter H. Alexander, alleged to have killed her when she chose her husband rather than him. The shooting occurred at Poplar, a small town near Porterville. According to the story told the sheriff by Bachman, Alexander had been forcing alleged attentions upon Mrs. Bachman. Yesterday, he said, Alexander forced the husband and wife to accompany him to Poplar and there, at the point of a shotgun, commanded Mrs. Bachman to choose between her husband and himself. Mrs. Bachman protested her love for and loyalty to her husband and Alexander was alleged to have shot and killed her instantly. Alexander, Bachman declared, then walked slowly away, Bachman evidently being too overcome to follow him. Alexander drank poison and died early today, when surrounded by a posse of officers.

SEEKING NEW IDEAS IN CONSTRUCTION OF NEW CHURCH

Building and Finance Committees of Presbyterians Visit Pomona Edifice

Members of the building and finance committees of the Presbyterian church visited Pomona yesterday afternoon and inspected the Congregational edifice in that city, the construction of which was supervised by Robert H. Orr, who has been employed as architect for the new structure to be erected by the Presbyterians here.

Among the features of construction which were particularly interesting to the committee were large open court between the main auditorium and the Sunday school plant which allows light and ventilation on both sides of the rooms; also the way in which the balcony was built at the rear of the auditorium only.

More Spacious Atmosphere

"This gives a more spacious atmosphere to the edifice," said J. A. Newton this morning in reporting the results of the visit. "It also permits practically everyone to see the beautifully-decorated ceiling. The radical departure from church building which Mr. Orr has incorporated into his plans are indeed pleasing and it is our intention to adapt these ideas to our own needs."

Altogether eighteen members of the two committees motored to Pomona to accompany the architect on a tour of inspection. Churches in other towns along the way were viewed from the exterior.

Miss Hazel Myers Is Robert Ford's Bride

The marriage of Miss Hazel Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Myers of 1316 South Central avenue and Robert Ford, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Ford, was solemnized Saturday at noon at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. E. E. Ford officiated and only the immediate families of the young couple were present.

The bride wore a dainty gown of pink georgette and was unattended. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served, the table being centered with a beautiful bride's cake and a pink and white color scheme being followed in flowers and favors.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ford left early in the afternoon for San Diego where they will spend a week. They will return to Glendale about September 1, and plan to make their home here.

BY AUTO TO ILLINOIS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reisner of 1132 North Louise street will leave tomorrow by automobile for their old home in Springfield, Illinois, to dispose of their possessions there. Mr. and Mrs. Reisner came to California for a visit and stopped at Glendale. Like many eastern visitors they were unable to resist the many desirable attractions which this city affords and decided to make their home here. Mr. and Mrs. Reisner will stop en route at Atchison, Kansas, to visit Mr. Reisner's mother, who is over 90 years old., They expect to return to Glendale about November 1.

BACK FROM BIG BEAR LAKE

Mrs. H. A. McPherson, Misses Vera and Dorothy McPherson, Allen McPherson and Miss Alice Gray Beach, all of this city, returned Saturday afternoon from Big Bear Lake, where they enjoyed an outing and vacation. Misses Vera and Dorothy McPherson and Alice Gray Beach spent two weeks at the famous San Bernardino mountain resort, while Mrs. McPherson and her son, Allen, joined them last week. Miss Lila Webster, also of this city, enjoyed the first week of the outing.

GETS FINE FOR SPEEDING

Too much speed cost L. G. South of Pasadena $25 in Police Judge F. H. Lowe's court this morning. He was caught by the motorcycle officer last week-end and deposited $10 bail. On leaving police headquarters he evidently thought 33 miles an hour was too slow for arrest, so he did 45 on his motorcycle. He paid for his pleasure. R. L. Verlaque of San Diego forfeited $15 for excesive speed and a half dozen others contributed from nothing up to $10.

INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Victor Woolery of Sycamore canyon was injured yesterday in an automobile accident and taken to the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital where his slight contusions and lacerations were dressed. Valentine Hollingsworth, 414 East Dryden street, an employee of a local mill, had a lacerated finger dressed this morning.

KOREAN CONDITIONS ARE RELATED BY SPEAKER HERE

verts one-third are in Korea. And yet last year only about $125,000 of our money went into their work. Theirs is now a fully self-governing church; and that makes a self-propagating church. It has thirteen presbyteries, and its own General Assembly. There are but two denominations at work there,—Presbyterian and Methodist. These two work in separate segments with no over-lapping. The whole work has grown from one to 300,000 within one generation.

Over two-thirds of all these Christians were last year in Bible conferences and classes. And every single Christian is in Sunday school,—a school perhaps having to meet in several installments—and every one is at church service; and every one is at prayer meeting, with just an ordinary elder leading. All of them preach; they are not baptized unless they are ready for that, and every one does Christian work; their business they consider is simply to pay expenses. And so the live church grows. But it has gone through most terrible things.

Shot by Thousands

"A while ago the people undertook to make 'peaceful protest' against the tyrannical usurpation of the government by Japan. Everybody shouted 'Long live Korea!'—nothing more: it was no crime in our country once to do this kind of thing; but for this they were shot down by thousands. Many Christians were among these. Then all the people followed in spirit. The Christians were especially noticed, and there were many conspiracies to attack them.

"In a church the minister was dragged out of his pulpit through the door just behind him; then one of his elders, a stalwart giant and wealthy, calmly took his place to carry on the service, and he, too, was pulled out the door to jail. But all were self-controlled. Then the third man went forward, and he likewise was dragged out. No man now who is of any account but has been in jail. Churches have been burned, Bibles burned. But yet all these persecutions have worked as blessings, and the church grew. 'There must be something good in this religion,' was the feeling.

"In Korea age allows domineering,—the older men do all the bossing. God allowed some of the older men to be snatched to prison who had been blocking the way of the best advance, and younger and wiser men with vision got their oportunity to get in their real true work. Those old men were after awhile coming out saying, "I've been in prison with Jesus.'

Thrown Into Prison

"A Christian teacher of position was lashed and scarred and thrown into prison. Getting out, he said, 'It was so good to suffer with Christ;' giving up his teaching he became a minister; he preached, and was snatched to prison. There he had freedom to preach, and he went into every province of Korea, into Siberia and Hawaii, and more, by all those prisoners, for he preached and taught all of them. They even sang,—with mouths wide open but making not a sound. This man was moved from cell to cell through all that prison; and many churches in many places have sprung from that work.

"The persecution has been a cause of blessing in that the fleeing, scattered ones have carried the Word wherever they went. Where a Korean Christian goes his Bible goes and his Lord goes. There they have gone into Siberia and Manchuria; there they are the only ones reaching the Russian peasants. We are all together in this world,—you praying and supporting over here. Those in danger have been released many times by prayer at home.

"John and Mary Gastin, friends of the speaker, went into interior China. Then one day Mary was sick with fever; it would be serious. They took a little boat and started down river, praying as they went. After some time she said, 'Let's go up that hill under that shade tree.' He carried her up. 'I know I'm not going any farther. John, I'm so glad I came!' kissed him, and was gone. He was utterly at peace. In the dusk he had to go down and get an oar from the boat with which to dig a grave. He put boughs in, put on her skirt for a shroud, laid her in, laid over more boughs, put the earth in,—'It nearly killed me to do that.' He had asked her, 'What do you want me to do?' 'Go back again.' And he did.

"That's the kind of service that is needed in Glendale, America, the whole world."

SEEK KINGDOM OF GOD, IS PLEA OF FATHER O'NEILL

Sixty Million People Are 'Living In Darkness' In United States, Claim

Rev. James S. O'Neill, addressing his congregation at the Holy Family church Sunday morning, reminded them of the fact that the beautiful words of the gospel he read were being read all over the world in twenty different tongues. He urged them to underline the words in their prayer-books that they might turn to them in time of discouragement.

The Gospel was taken from St. Matthew VI, 24-33. "At that time Jesus said to His disciples: No man can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will sustain the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and Mammon. Therefore I say to you, be not solicitous for your life, what you shall eat; nor for your body what you shall put on. . . . For after all these things do the heathen seek. For your Father knoweth that you have need of all these things. Seek ye, therefore, first the kingdom of God and His justice; and all these things shall be added unto you."

"You cannot serve two masters," said Father O'Neill in part. "We of the United States can not but see that the god of the people of this country is the dollar. True it is that every man must work, must earn his daily bread and care for his family by the sweat of his brow. That is the curse that was placed upon Adam. But these daily things can be done for the glory of God, or for the glory of the devil.

Many Live in Darkness

"There are over one hundred million people in these United States, and government statistics show that sixty millions of these people do not profess any faith whatever. Sixty millions living in darkness and their children growing up in darkness, yet there are those that spend thousands of dollars sending missionaries to South America and other Christian countries where a greater per cent of the population are serving God than here in our own country.

"And people coming to America from the old countries where they loved God and served Him faithfully are affected by the craze for money so that they quickly learn to give Him second place. We are the country where the money is made, not the country where God reigns supreme.

Seek Kingdom of God

"'Seek ye therefore first, the kingdom of God,' are words that should be cried the world over and here in our own country there is a greater need than in any other, for here God is set aside and the dollar mark raised up supreme. And when a rich man dies, he thinks by leaving to charity what he couldn't take with him, he can make it right with God for his neglect during his life. But it is not so! No man can serve two masters. We who profess to be Christians should look carefully into our hearts to see what master we really serve."

Father O'Neill announced that the new church would be ready for dedication in October and that the windows would be installed next month.

Rev. A. J. Drury of Los Angeles Speaks at Methodist Church

Rev. A. J. Drury of Los Angeles brought an inspiring message to the large congregation at the First Methodist church Sunday morning. His subject was "A Walk with Jesus from Bethany to Gethsemane." Text Matthew 26, 36. "Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane." Mr. Drury said in part:

"The day before the passion, Jesus spent in Bethany at a sort of home coming. Simon, Mary, Martha, Lazarus and others were there. They were the nearest of Christ's home folks. In the evening Jesus went with the disciples to Jerusalem, where they were to keep the passion. At this time Christ instituted the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. After which he took three disciples and went to a place called Gethsemane. Here He prayed earnestly that He might bear the burden that was on Him.

"The Savior taught by example as well as by precept. He was willing to go through the agony of the garden that He might serve humanity. There is a vital lesson in this important incident for the church as a whole, for the ministry and for the individual believer. For the church that is a praying church, that gets close to God, is the church that renders the greatest service to mankind. The minister and layman who go through this gethsemane of prayer, get close to God and then close to men."

The evening service was a musical treat. The men's chorus rendered an excellent program that was well appreciated. This was their first public effort, but it was so heartily enjoyed that already there is a desire for its repetition. They sang "with the spirit and the understanding as unto the Lord."

PLACING TREASURES ABOVE, TOPIC BY DR. H. C. FUNK

Ease Loving and Card Playing 'Christians' Not Ones to Benefit, Says Pastor

Taking the subject, "Treasures Above," based on Matthew 6-21, "For where your treasure is, there will the heart be also," Dr. H. C. Funk delivered an interesting sermon at the First Lutheran church Sunday morning. He said, in part:

Abraham tenting on the plains of Sodom could not be tempted because he had had a glimpse of the eternal city. Now I have noticed that when people live in tents for awhile they do not put on their best clothes, because others are good enough. So when people tell me they cannot attend services because they do not have fine clothes, I tell them we are campers, pilgrims, just tenting here for awhile, and their clothes, however worn and threadbare they may be, are good enough to go to church. By and by you will be invited to a great feast in the palace of the king; and when you say, "My clothes are not good enough," He will say, "Come just as you are," for He will provide a robe of righteousness for you.

Too Worldly Minded

The trouble with most of us is we are too worldly minded. A good many people join the church because they want to find rest; and some of them don't do anything but rest, their vacation lasts all the year round. One good sister said to me, "I had a hard time making up my mind, but I finally decided to unite with the church and I can rest easy now." My, what an awful mistake some folks make! So I said to this good woman: "Sister, your trouble has just begun." The Christian life is not a rest, it's a warfare. Christ came not to bring peace, but a sword. By joining the church you put on the uniform of a Christian soldier; and the promise of reward is not to the one that goes to sleep on the job, but to "Him that overcometh."

Suffering For Christ

No, my dear friends, these case-loving, worldly, tobacco-soaked, card-playing Christians are not the ones that become the great benefactors of the human race. We talk about suffering for Christ; but really, we don't know anything about suffering. Why, it is the popular thing now to belong to church, and it is the fellow that don't belong that is ridiculed. It was not so with the Apostle Paul. He was beaten with forty stripes, save one, not once but many times. He was ship-wrecked and imprisoned. He was stoned and left for dead. When he came to, what did he do? Run away? No, he went to Corinth and began preaching again. How did he travel? On a Pullman? No, he walked every foot of the way. After preaching a year and a half a committee waited on him. What did they give him? Listen, forty stripes save one. The world calls him a fool, for he was beheaded for his faith and fidelity to God. But how could he bear it all without complaining? The answer is found in these words: "Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." And when the end came, he could say, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not unto me only, but unto all them that love his appearing."

Laying Up Treasures

I met a man some time ago who is a banker, a lumber dealer and a land owner. He had made a good paying investment and was about to sell it; so he said to his wife as we talked together, "What will we do with the money?" She replied, "You promised to give it to the Lord." "All right," said he("we must see where it will do the most good." Then he told me that he had forty-eight acres of land a half mile out of the city which he had thought of giving to the church for a home to the orphans or the aged. That same man has given a quarter of a million dollars to one of our needy colleges. What wonder that the Lord is prospering him. This man is doing his giving quietly, and is hardly ever heard of, but he is laying up treasures above.

FIFTEEN AUTOS RECOVERED

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—A watery auto graveyard at Summit, Ill., was plumbed by expert divers in an effort to locate several machines, sunk without a trace. Fifteen automobiles, mostly of expensive makes, have been recovered from the abandoned quarry pool. Some of the engines were in reverse, indicating they had been backed into the watery grave, while others had tow ropes attached. Reports that a diver had seen three bodies in one machine were disproved when the auto was hauled to the surface. The diver admitted his error.

Central Methodists Carry on Campaign to Clear Away Debt

Notwithstanding the summer season, when most churches relax their usual activities and some churches go on a vacation, the Central Avenue Methodist church people have planned and are carrying on a debt-raising campaign. Their entire indebtedness on the church is $2900 and seven teams of church members are going to raise that amount this week. They are actually going to accomplish the task and reach the goal, for they have already planned a service on September 11 at which Dr. Davis, the district superintendent, will be present, and the mortgage burned. The pastor, Dr. V. Hunter Brink, is to be congratulated on the excellent condition of the church financially, at the close of the conference year.

Sunday night a goodly number of people gathered for the services and listened to a stirring address by Dr. Brink, his subject being "Paul's Manner of Preaching, or God's Method of Saving the World." Text, "But God hath chosen the foolish things of this world to confound the wise and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty. And those things of the world which are despised hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to naught things that are, that no flesh should glory in His presence."

Dr. Brink developed the truths of the text into three parts and gave God's purpose as follows: First, to humble man's pride; second, to better save men; third, to more fully glorify God."

Prize-Winning Float of Glendale In Elks' Parade Gets Publicity

One of the best and most beneficial advertisements that Glendale has received during the past few months was recently pointed out by W. M. Kimball, secretary of the Glendale Elks' lodge, in the July edition of the National Elks' Horn, which is a monthly publication printed at St. Louis, Missouri. Practically the entire number was given over to the recent national convention which was held in Los Angeles, and the only cut in the magazine that represented any of the many functions of the gala week was a large quarter page photograph of the now famous Glendale float, which took first prize in the mammoth floral parade.

The following inscription was placed below the picture: "Glendale, California, float in great Elks' parade in Los Angeles. The huge floral flag almost waved—so graceful and natural were the lines."

The National Elks' Horn which has been published continuously for over twenty years, is distributed over practically every section of the United States, all of which will further advertise "the most advertised city in America."

PICKFORD CASE APPEALED

CARSON CITY, Nev., Aug. 22.—The famous Mary Pickford divorce fight was on its way to the supreme court of the state of Nevada today. Attorney-General Fowler prepared to file before night a notice of appeal from the decision of District Judge Langan throwing out of court the suit of the state of Nevada to annul the divorce granted Mary from Owen Moore. The divorce is directed to "Gladys M. Moore, also known as Gladys M. Fairbanks"—Gladys having been Mary's name before she became famous.

TELLS OF RUSS CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—"If a czar were to set himself up in Russia tomorrow and proclaim that the peasants should retain ownership of the land they would accept him with complete indifference," according to Lewis Cannett, associate editor of The Nation today. Gannett has just returned from a several months' investigation of Russian conditions and is the latest American arrival from that country.

ing a bountiful harvest. In one district, comparatively small, in a recent revival there were 1200 converts for baptism.

They are required by the Adventist missionaries to give up their native grog, their tobacco and the use of unclean foods, and so the Adventist church is known in all Fiji as "The Clean Church." The native translation of the legal name of the church is a long sentence of a dozen or more words, and so a short, characteristic name was coined by the natives and it soon became popular.

A high standard in morals and spirituality, as well as in personal habits and hygiene is also maintained.

Many tracts and books of a limited size have been published in the Fijian language, among them a work on physiology and hygiene. It was illustrated in a helpful way and was very much appreciated by the native Christians and by other missions as well, because of the useful instruction contained in it. It was and still is used in the Adventist school, where native workers are trained, that they might become intelligent leaders to their people.

Much About Human Body

The speaker said that in preparing this book he found the Fijian language rich in names of the various parts of the interior of the body not found in other groups of islands where the people were not cannibals. Cannabalism had taught them much of the human anatomy in Fiji, so it was easy to translate the matter selected for the book.

Mr. Fulton said that native doctors were numerous and they usually chose certain leaves which they chewed up and gave to the patient suffering from the disease they specialized on. One poor victim was near to death at the hands of a dozen "specialists" when he came to his rescue. He ordered the chief to put them all out and then he heated water, soaked the patient's feet and applied fomentations to the painful parts and soon the sick man fell asleep and slept all night and till 8 o'clock the next morning. The man lived and ever showed much gratitude to him (Mr. Fulton) for having saved his life.

Fiji is under British rule. In the days of President Buchanan the isiands were offered to the United States, but acting on the traditional policy of the country the offer was rejected.

A full house listened with the deepest interest to the lecture, and afterwards came up to inspect the curios from Fiji.

NOT GUILTY TO BE PLEAS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 22.—Madalynne Obenchain and Arthur C. Burch were prepared to plead not guilty to the murder of John Belton Kennedy here today. Madalynne and Burch were to appear before Judge Sidney N. Reeves today. Ralph Oberchain, chief counsel for the defense, was expected to ask that Madalynne be admitted to bail, on the grounds that the state had only a weak case against her. Such a move would force the prosecution to lay before Judge Reeve at least a part of any additional evidence it may have, it was believed at the court house. Council for the defense will request at least a month to prepare for trial, Obenchain said.

STUDENT SECRETARY AT C. OF C. ONCE COAST ATHLETE

Henry Purinton, Disabled In World War, Made Assistant to Secretary Rhoades

Henry Purinton, who began his duties today as a student secretary with the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, brings to that organization an interesting and well-rounded personality that should serve him well in meeting the public.

Besides being a disabled service men, who is stationed here by the Federal Board for vocational education, Mr. Purinton is a former athlete who will be remembered by old timers in the Pacific Coast Baseball league. In 1911 he was trainer for the Oakland club under Harry Wolverton and served in the same capacity in 1912 under "Bud" Sharpe. He also trained many boxers around the bay cities and between times worked with the Wells Fargo Express company.

Joins Engineering Corps

In 1913 he joined the engineering corps of the regular United States army and was stationed in the Philippines at the time America entered the world war. He was transferred to Vancouver barracks as sergeant in charge of "rookies" and in May, 1918, sailed from Camp Merritt, N. J., for France with a regiment of "sappers."

While rescuing General Gordon's car in the Vosges, Mr. Purinton was severely injured when the frightened chauffeur drove the machine with a detachment of eleven men over a mountain side. The local man was pitched clear of the fatal wreck, but nearly broke his back in landing against a tree.

For months the sergeant sapper was kept in hospitals both in France and this country, finally being sent to southern California to recuperate.

Cannot Do Heavy Work

It is impossible for him to do heavy work and it is with pleasure that Secretary James M. Rhoades will acquaint him with secretarial duties.

Mr. Rhoades is well acquainted with the Orient, having made numerous trips across the Pacific, while Mr. Purinton can talk with travelers about the Philippines, Central America, France and New England. E. F. Sanders, assistant secretary, has visited all parts of the United States as a salesman and salesmanager for a large tractor concern. All of which will make newcomers "feel at home" when they visit the Chamber of Commerce.

Fred Conrad Is Now With Chevrolet Agency

Fred Conrad, who formerly was engaged in the tire business here, has accepted a position as salesman with Fish & Tarr, Chevrolet dealers, 506 East Broadway, and will be pleased to meet his friends after several years' absence from Glendale. He is bringing his family to this city to reside.

According to O. W. Tarr, the demand for Chevrolet cars makes necessary this addition to the force. Mr. Conrad is an experienced demonstrator and has a reputation for courtesy which will serve him well.

REFUNDING BILL APPROVED

WASHINGTON. Aug. 22.—The administration bill, providing for refunding the $11,000,000,000 allied debts to the United States was favorably reported to the senate by Senator Penrose, Pennsylvania, chairman of the finance committee. The measure has been amended to provide for the refunding to be completed in five years. Senator Lafollette, Wisconsin, at the same time submitted a minority report.

The bill gives the secretary of the treasury sweeping authority to refund and to extend time of payment of the principal or interest of any obligation of any foreign government owing to the United States arizing out of the European war. He is authorized to convert these obligations into bonds of debt of any other foreign government and to receive bonds of any foreign government in substitution for those now or hereafter held by the United States.

Two bystanders were wounded by flying bullets. Hurst was captured in the railroad yards where he had taken refuge.

EXCELLENT PROGRAMS BEING GIVEN PUBLIC BY THEATRES OF GLENDALE

Vaudeville Two Times a Week Will Be Provided At Glendale; Feature Pictures At Palace Grand

THINGS THEATRICAL are looking up in Glendale. Evidence of this is the record throngs attending local picture play palaces last week-end. And back of the curtains there is a reason.

Programs unequalled in worth are being presented here at ordinary admission prices. For instance, the five acts of vaudeville presented at the Glendale Theatre Saturday in conjunction with a feature film. Beginning September 6, the Mikelejohn & Dunn road show of big time acts will play here on Tuesdays as well as Saturdays.

At the Palace Grand today two great features, Ethel Clayton in "Sham" and "A Tale of Two Worlds," a Gouvernor Morris' Production, with a Burton Holmes travelogue thrown in for good measure, provide three hours of enjoyment. More double bills are promised by Manager N. J. Fleming which should do much to keep show-loving people in Glendale.

'WOMEN MEN LOVE' IS TONIGHT FOR LAST TIME

This afternoon and evening provide the final opportunities of seeing the six-reel feature, "Women Men Love," at the Glendale. William Desmond, Marguerite Marsh, Martha Mansfield and Evan Burrows Fontaine are the stars. The latest Pathe News and Al St. John in a great comedy fill the bill.

Noted Organist Is Playing

J. Edwin Hill, who comes direct from Crandall's Metropolitan theatre in Washington, D. C., the capital's finest, is presiding at the console of the great Estes organ at the Glendale Theatre in the absence of Madame Clement, who is ill.

Mr. Hill's playing is a revelation of tonal effect to be gained from a pipe organ. During the hilarious Al St. John comedy, he used the traps to splendid advantage while his accompaniment for the feature film was a delight. His work, although unannounced, created much favorable comment from Saturday and Sunday crowds.

New Fox Star Is Coming

Johnnie Walker, a new Fox star, will be seen here three days this week and in person on Wednesday and Thursday nights when "Over the Hill" plays for the first time in any theatre at regular prices. His character work in this wonder picture won him the star part in "Live Wires" to be seen tomorrow night.

'TALE OF TWO WORLDS' OF LOVE AND INTRIGUE

"A Tale of Two Worlds," which is being shown at the Palace Grand for the last times today, reveals much for the photoplay goer to be thankful for. In the first place, it has a story, a really gripping story of love and intrigue, in which a young American is given the opportunity of his life to exercise his intelligence and his physical courage. The spur for all his efforts is an American girl who has been brought to San Francisco's Chinatown after her parents were killed in the Boxer uprising of 1899.

Closing tonight also is "Sham," a Paramount picture starring Ethel Clayton. Included in the cast are Theodore Roberts, Walter Hiers, Sylvia Ashton, Helen Dunbar, Carrie Clark Ward, Eunice Burnham and Clyde Fillmore. The comedy is delightful.

To Admit Children Free

With Charles Ray in "Scrap Iron" and "Miracles of the Jungle" as the film attractions, the program Thursday, Friday and Saturday ushers in a new epoch in the Palace Grand's history. The Hope-Jones Wurlitzer master unit orchestral organ will be played for the first times. Other numbers will be on the bill, but the music will be a treat well worth hearing alone. The organ is equal to a 75-piece orchestra, according to its manufacturers.

All children in Glendale under 12 years of age will be admitted free Thursday between 1 and 5:30 in the afternoon to see the first episode of "Miracles of the Jungle."

TWO SHOT IN GUN FIGHT

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 22.—William Ryan of Oakland was shot through the right lung, right wrist and left side in a gun battle with two officers here, and Deputy Sheriff William R. Cook received a bullet in his shoulder. Ryan, with two other prisoners, James Redmond and John Howe, were being taken to the county jail and as he stepped from the county machine he drew a revolver from his coat and shouted "hands up; I'm going to shoot," he fired and the bullet entered Cook's shoulder. Cook and Deputy Sheriff Martenstein drew their revolvers and emptied them at Ryan.

The shooting occurred shortly after Ryan and another prisoner had attempted to escape from the automobile near the outskirts of the city, after they had been arrested at a roadhouse. The three men were arrested at the roadhouse charged with "shooting up" the place. Redmond gave his home address as Los Angeles.

TEXTILE OUTLOOK GOOD

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—"The textile industry is looking to the future with confidence, according to a telegraphic statement to the United Press today by W. D. Adams of Charlotte, N. C., secretary of the American Cotton Manufacturers' association. Adams forecast that the industry again will be working full time by fall and early winter. He said the financial condition of the mills following the recent deflation the most remarkable in history, the textile industry today is looking to the future with confidence," he said. "The fact should be borne in mind that the deflation was not occasioned so much by overproduction as under consumption. Today there is no excess of cotton goods but rather an under supply and as soon as the demand approaches normal the mills will be able to operate with a profit. There is a gratifying demand for standard piece goods, with calls for other lines as well. Prices have strengthened and with a short crop ahead, there is every reason to believe that advances will be noted sufficient to enable the mills to run full time."

ARREST IN MURDER PLOT

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 22.—Belief that members of the "good killers" alleged New York murder gang, were involved in a blackmail attempt directed at five leading Seattle men, was expressed by Hans Damm, police inspector in charge of the case. Michael Placanica was arrested here in connection with the affair. Blackmail letters were sent demanding $8,000 from the Rev. Dr. Mark A. Matthews, noted minister; $10,000 from James D. Hoge, banker; $6,000 from Frank McDermott, merchant; $5,000 from Judge Thos. Burke, and $5,000 from David Rodgers of a shipbuilding company.

"Kick through, you hypocrites, or you'll all go to heaven by the dynamite route," the letter said. They were signed "the avenging angel." Placanica was arrested when he was alleged to have picked up a package supposed to contain the money demanded.

DRY AHEAD OF TIME, CLAIM

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—Three years ahead of the W. C. T. U. which is planning complete aridity by 1925, California in 1922 may be entirely destitute of wine through an oversight of the federal prohibition office, it was learned today. The office has neglected, it was said, to issue the regular manufacturing permits, and wineries with the prospect of ripening vineyards in all parts of the state, are without the legal means of turning them into beverage possibilities. In the effort to save the grape growers from ruin, revenue agents have been dispatched to distribute the permits to over thirty of the largest wineries of the state.

'DEAR KATIE' HEARS SOMETHING ABOUT TALKING BABIES

What They Would Say If This Doctor's Plan Is Worked With Any Success!

Glendale, Aug. 22, 1921.

Dear Katie:—On the paper a few days ago I was readin' a artikle which the same said as how Dr. Swift of the Northwestern university, predicts the time is soon comin' when babies is goin to learn to talk at 6 months of age. The artikle goes on to say as how the doctor has announced the opening of a school where the child of tender years is goin to learn to talk and the doctor will show the fond parents how to get babies to talk plain, first by imitation.

He says as how too much of the infants' time is wasted for the first year or two by cryin' all the time or just talkin' goo-goo and da-da when it could just as well be discussin' the Einstein theory with the nurse girl.

Well Katie, that's as far as I read and right away I says to myself what's this world comin' to, if anything?

If what that doctor says is true and the little "dahlinks" is goin to talk by the time they're a couple years old, theres goin' to be some suprisin' secrets revealed. Ain't it so Katie?

Wouldn't It Startle You?

Can you imagine the 6 months old baby of the near future eventually, that is settin' on the kitchen floor playin' with his dominoes, that someday is goin to sniff a deep sniff and then let out a yell like, "Hey pa, the home brew is boilin over," or maybe he will remark as follows; "say Ma, Pa kissed the nurse this mornin' and I seen him when he done it."

Now Katie, as for the girl babies havin' a Edison education at the age of a few months, is where the joke comes in, cause most of 'em can easily make up for lost time after they're married.

And if boy babies is goin' to learn to talk at that age, they no doubt will all want to be either lawyers or barbers when they grow up.

And if the babies of the future is all goin to be born with a dictionary in their mouth instead of a silver spoon maybe sometime when the fond parent is shakin' the pennies out of baby's bank, he will be greeted with the following stern rebuke, "I'm certainly proud of you pa."

But after all Katie, I guess it's goin' to be kinda nice for the baby at that cause instead of settin' on the nursery floor and cryin' for half an hour about nothin, he can yell in plain English, as she is spoke; "Say ma, for the love of Mike, come and pull this safety pin outa my back." Katie oemagin' it.

Complaints Will Be Heard

And then suppose as how the little girl babies at 2 will begin to complain as how men are all alike and the little boy babies will discuss the short skirt problem. Well Katie, even so there's a lot of pretty babies in this here town (and they ain't all under 6 years of age either) and most of 'em has learned by this time as how there ain't no Santa Claus.

And the trouble with some of the youngsters now days is that they know twice as much as they ought to know and not half as much as they should. But as for babies bein' able to talk, I guess there's quite a lot of grown ups which try to say somethin' sometimes which the same ain't got no more sense to it than goo-goo and da-da has in baby lingo. Like for the example when some people make offhand remarks like; "Well, what do you know today," or maybe them which says, "It would be hot, if it wasn't for the humidity" whatever that is. Katie, can you beat it?

Have You Heard Them?

And then there's some of them conductors on the P. E. which call out the names of the streets. They might as well yell goo-goo and da-da as far as all the good it does, cause half the time nobody knows what they're sayin' anyhow.

Well Katie, this here artikle about babies ain't got nothin' to do with a strivin' reporter and anyway I'm as poor a judge of babies as a judge is at a baby show.

A grand baby is all right I suppose, whether it talks or not, but for myself—I'd rather have a Baby Grand.

Yours without either

War Photographs Will Be Shown at Becker's

The Local View company will exhibit at Becker's drug store on North Brand boulevard this week a collection of photographs taken by Fred Eldredge, who is associated with Harrison W. Frank in the photographic laboratory he has installed at 1558 East Wilson avenue. Mr. Eldredge was an official photographer for the United States army for eighteen months during the war and was on the firing line throughout the conflict, taking photographs and moving pictures for government use. The pictures on exhibit include many views taken in the front line trenches and were all taken by Mr. Eldredge and later enlarged by Mr. Davis of the Davis photo service.

END INQUIRY INTO WRECK

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—Federal investigators of the wreck of the steamer Alaska today had completed the taking of evidence from passengers and crew which would fix the blame for the disaster either on the alleged incompetence of the crew, negligence of the officers in directing the rescue work or the improper handling of the vessel by Captain Hobey who went down with his ship. At the closing session the four mates testified that the captain was on the bridge when the Alaska struck Blunt's Reef, and had laid down the course which they estimated had caused the vessel to run six miles in shallow water before the wreck occurred. During the hearings passengers testified variously that the crew was negligent or that while eager to aid, was inefficient, that the ship was improperly provided with rescue equipment, or that while equipment was available it was improperly handled.

MAY FIND ANOTHER BODY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—Investigations of the murder of Father Patrick Heslin today have entered into ramifications that indicate authorities are on the track of more startling evidence than has yet been revealed from the imaginative flights of William Hightower, the accused man, or the ghastly testimony uncovered at Salada Beach.

Significance was attached to the fact that District Attorney Swart of San Mateo county made a special trip to La Honda and spent several hours in questioning Doris Putnam, nee Shirley. New evidence of an accomplice in the crime was brought forward in the statement of two women, employees of an employment agency, who declared that Hightower in company with a "small, dark foreigner" came to them to apply for work. Constable S. A. Lendini, continuing the search of Salada Beach, is still unconvinced that there is not another body buried somewhere in its sands.

Did Whale Swallow Jonah? Dr. F. L. Riley States His Version

"Did the Whale Swallow Jonah?" This biblical problem was the subject upon which Dr. F. L. Riley lectured at Masonic hall Sunday morning.

Teachers of the Word have been attempting for ages to answer this as well as scores of other biblical problems by a literal interpretation of the stories, much to the confusion of their auditors; as it is absolutely impossible to interpret a story literally, told allegorically, the speaker said.

As generally understood, the whale did not swallow Jonah. Literally speaking, the whale could not accomplish such a feat. The mouth of a whale is very large, but the throat is so small that it can swallow but very small fishes, said Dr. Riley.

Although occurrences stated as facts which actually took place, Jonah, I, L5-L7, that "Jonah was cast into the sea"; "the Lord preparing a great fish to swallow Jonah"; "Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights"; literally speaking, nothing of the kind ever took place, as has been invariably taught and understood, he said.

From Chinese Bible

In leading up to the subject, the doctor asserted that "we can trace all of the important situations and truths contained in our bible from the Chinese bible which was in use 550 years before our bible was known, to the Persian, Babylonian and other bibles, away back several thousands of years to the original Sanscrit."

The speaker characterized as "assinine stupidity" the generally accepted conclusion of the orthodox teaching of the day, that the people of those countries who have handed down practically all of the information and truths of which we boast as Christian principals; should be designated as "heathen," and take upon themselves the arrogant task of converting them; looking upon ourselves (Christians) as "chosen people."

It is a significant fact, that while our bible was written in Greek, the Greek race was in a savage state long after the Hindoo bible came into use, from which many of our bible stories were taken and can be found at this day.

A few allegorical interpretations showing what the speaker termed "the foolishness of the present day literal interpretations of the bible." follow:

"Cast into the sea"; fear, anxiety, trouble, hell.

"Fish"; (in Greek) "the truth saves." Brahma, who claimed to be the "Creator, the Brahman God," assumed the shape of a fish.

Symbolic Or Evil

Note that Jonah was cast, not in fresh water, which is symbolic of "all good things," but was cast in salt water, symbolic of evil.

Jonah was not a "man," the term is symbolic of the "inner man," "that something," "intuition," a state of consciousness, not mere human reasoning.

"Three days and nights in the whale's belly," a state of mind.

Anyone who becomes agitated, flies into a passion, is envious, vindictive, jealous or brutal, for the time being, is a "Jonah."

The lecturer emphasized that regardless of color, creed, or race, all are God's children; none can justly be regarded as heathen or chosen of God.

Next Sunday morning Dr. Riley chooses as his subject, "What About the Money Which Jesus Took From the Mouths of Fishes?"

IT DEPENDS ON VOLSTEAD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Whether the nation will be flooded with beer soon depended today on Andrew J. Volstead, author of the prohibition law. Here is the situation today: Volstead opposes the Stanley amendment to the anti-medicinal beer bill which forbids dry agents from hunting liquor unless armed with search warrants. This amendment would hamper prohibition enforcement. Unless Volstead yields on this point, his opposition will hold up the whole anti-medicinal beer bill until it is killed by the congressional adjournment next Thursday. In that case, the internal revenue bureau will proceed to issue its regulations governing sale of beer for medicinal purposes. Unless the beer bill goes through before next Wednesday, when congress adjourns, the breweries probably will soon be working overtime producing beer "for the sick."

ONE KILLED, FIFTY HURT

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 22.—One was killed and more than fifty wounded when a mob stormed the jail here last night. The mob was bent on lynching Frank Martin, negro, alleged assailant of Miss Jessie Parke, a young school teacher. The would-be lynchers crossed a deadline into the fire of authorities guarding the jail. The crowd included many women, some of them with babies in their arms. Two of those shot were women.

The attack upon the jail followed a day of watchfulness on the part of jail authorities, police reserves and two machine gun companies. Fire from shotguns, handled by deputy sheriffs and machine guns from the militia swept the street. As members of the mob fell, the fire was returned. Excitement was at fever heat today.

WANTS STREET CARS BACK

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 22.—Des Moines wants her street cars back—if they will deliver real service. After nearly a month of bus riding, while street cars gathered rust in the barns, negotiations to again start street car service were coming to a head under pressure from the retail merchants. Street car service was abandoned when the company couldn't make expenses in the face of jitney bus competition.

The busses have done remarkably well, take it from the average Des Moines rider. Eighty four busses have carried an average of 72,000 persons each day. Everyone rides now with no time lost, but comfort and regularity have been sacrificed. A street car system with cars running on regular schedule would be preferred. The busses haven't had a thorough trial, everyone admits. They are still an experiment and Des Moines' leading merchants do not feel that the city can afford to experiment. The busses, operating on a month to month franchise, have been unable to organize and develop their facilities for handling the crowds, as they would have been able to do if the city had granted them one year franchises giving them exclusive use of the streets.

CATTLE MEN ARE WARNED

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Farmers, keep your cattle off the market! That was the warning broadcasted throughout the cattle growing country today by the Chicago livestock exchange. Cattle raisers, dealers and shippers were urged to restrict shipments of cattle to packing centers, due to the glutted market. Additional heavy shipments, it was feared, would again demoralize the present prices. The demand for dressed beef has come to a standstill, packers said, with the market overstocked. There has been a nationwide slump in the consumption of beef, due, packers believe, to the more than 5,000,000 unemployed in the country and to the high retail prices.

A heavy over supply of beef has reached the packers recently as a result of the campaign waged thruout the west by banks and merchants urging farmers to liquidate their products and pay their debts. Dealers in wholesale meats predict that if the farmers will keep their livestock off the market it will also aid in breaking the retail meat prices, which packers contend have been kept on a profiteering basis by the retail butchers.

WHY PICK ON REFEREE?

CHICAGO—Tommy Moran failed to show up for his exhibition boxing match with Jack Norman. Alderman John Lyle substituted for the missing pug. The alderman knocked out the referee with a wild swing.

TWO WILLS IN CONFLICT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—More complications over the estate of John D. Spreckels, Jr., developed today. Two wills were brought to light. One will left a third of his quarter million dollar estate to Edith Wakefield Spreckels, his first wife. The second, made several years ago, left a similar share to Sydia Wirt Spreckels, his second wife, also divorced. Spreckels was killed several days ago in an automobile wreck at Bakersfield.
